SHERRMAN'S IMPROVED

CLOTHESWRINGER.

Has been pronounced by hundreds who have tested it to be the very best Wringer in the market—
st. Because it is a simple construction that it can possibly get out of order.

It is a simple contrivance to swell, shrink or decay.

They are so compact that it is necessary to remove them to wash them.

They are so compact that it is necessary to remove them to wash them.

If there be such a rampant sentiment of humanity, why does it not display itself for the poor Indian, who is wasting away through generations of suffering and misery?

As it seems all is concentrated on the negro race, they will go home to that most awful of all places to the ambitious politicians, the common walks of life, without credit or influence.

The writer in the Tribune sees this and is appalled at it. He feels a horror of the slave power; audslavery men will be persecuted.

Greeley thinks he and others can forestall this agitation on account of the sentiments of humanity. How humane, indeed, are these advocates of indiscriminate slaughter to free negroes!

If there be such a rampant sentiment of humanity, why does it not display itself for the poor Indian, who is wasting away through generations of suffering and misery?

The reason is plain. This sentiment, if it went out toward the poor Indian or the poor savages of King Dahomey's dominions, would not help the men of sentiments to office. It would not minister to his love of power and profit. It would not help his party. It is not unnatural that a man should feel for the negro race; but it will read any intelligent narrative by a traveler in Africa, he will think God that three or four millions got to this country, and have the care and superintendence of the white man, free from the horrors of African life, even if they are slaves. Such sympathetic, however, would not help him to office, and would not likely be much indulged.

ARREST OF TWO GUERRILLAS IN THE CITY.—Yesterday Major Leigold succeeded in making two very important arrests, in the persons of Robert Scarlett and W. Shields. These men for a long time had belonged to the rebel army, and were the leaders of several small guerrilla bands. Being cut off from their command they came to this city in disguise, wearing citizens' clothing. They enlisted in the Ninth Pennsylvania cavalry for the country, after receiving which they deserted that regiment. They were placed in prison, where they will be confined until their case can be investigated.

MEETING OF THE SCHOOL TRUSTEES.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of School Trustees was held at the Council chamber last night, when there was a full attendance. Geo. II. Tingley was elected Superintendent of the schools, with salary of $1,400, and J. P. Giese, Secretary, with a salary of $200. Mr. George H. Tingley, the Superintendent of the schools, made an annual report. Several teachers were elected to fill the places in the primary department. Without transacting other business of importance the Board adjourned to meet again the first Monday in September.

INQUEST NO. 241.—Held July 31st, 1864, at the canal, foot of Ninth street, on the body of David Kinworthy, aged 45 years. Verdict—“Accidental drowning.”

Jas. C. GILL, Coroner.

INQUEST NO. 243.—Held August 1st, 1864, on Madison street, between Hancock and Clay, on the body of John Drews, aged 40 years. Verdict—“Came to his death from a pistol shot wound in and upon the left side of the throat, inflicted by James R. K. Johnston.”

Jas. C. GILL, Coroner.

INQUEST NO. 247.—We are pained to learn of the death of the Hon. Caleb Wallace Logan. He was for a long time Judge of the Louisville Chancery Court, where his clear and logical decisions proclaimed him at once an eminent lawyer, and the possessor of a master-mind.

He was universally known as a firm and upright Judge. By his urbanity and uniform courtesy to lawyers, both old and young, he endeared himself to the members of the bar, whom his loss will be irreparable.

NH MUSIC.—We are obliged to our friend McClellan for a copy of N. O. B., a comic song, words by R. A. T., music J. T. M. The following is one of the verses which speak for the rest:

“But thank the Lord an antidote
I found to cure its ill,
‘Tis labeled on the outer side,
Grant’s Anti-Nigger Pill;
It cures all your diseases
On every battle-field;
And he’s the Doctor that will cure
The nigger on the brain.”

DAN CASTELLO’S GREAT SHOW.—This choice company of equestrian artists have arrived, and will give their first performance this afternoon, at the corner of Gray and Second streets. We take pleasure in commanding Dan and his co-laborers to the patronage of our citizens, as they are of more than usual merit.

BARRACKS ITEMS.—Yesterday was a very dull one at the barracks, so far as the receipts were concerned, which were too small to mention. The transfers were 396 convalescents, most to various points; and 14 prisoners sent off in iron, as follows: 6 to Nashville, 6 to Bowling Green, and 2 to Lexington.

During the month of July, 8,355 prisoners of war were transferred from the military prison here to various Northern prisons, and 883 deserters from the rebel army were released upon taking the amnesty oath and giving a parole to remain north of the Ohio river during the war.
